Dear Mr. Nalen:

I share your concern about future political and economic developments in Kenya following the recent coup attempt. The US Government and American private enterprise have a substantial investment in continued stability.

I am happy to have the Agency's political and economic analysts on Kenya talk with you or your staff. The briefing team would be led by John Helgerson, Chief of the West/East Africa Division in our Directorate of Intelligence's Office of African and Latin American Analysis. To arrange a time for this briefing, please contact Mr. Helgerson at  STAT

We at CIA recognize that OPIC has wide experience in political risk analysis on Africa and other areas. Our analysts look forward to talking with you or your staff and also to hearing your views of likely future developments in Kenya.

Sincerely,

7S/ John N. McMahon
